INFORMATION COLLECTION, USE AND ACCESS: DCA collects the information requested on this form as authorized by the Information Practices Act. The DCA uses this information to follow up on your complaint. If you do not wish to provide personal information, such as your name, home address, or home telephone number, you may remain anonymous. In that case, however, we may not be able to contact you or help you resolve your complaint. You may review the records maintained by the DCA that contain your personal information, as permitted by the Information Practices Act. The DCA will make every effort to protect the personal information you provide to us. However, in order to follow up on your complaint, we may need to share some of the information you give us with DCA employees or with other government agencies. This may include sharing any personal information you gave us. The information you provide may also be disclosed in response to a Public Records Act request, as allowed by the Information Practices Act; to another government agency as required by state or federal law; or, in response to a court administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.
